Samuel
Nathen This is the last Will and Testament of me Samuel Nathen of London Doctor in Physick as follows First I will and direct that all my just debts and funeral Expenses be paid and discharged by my Executors hereinafter named as soon as conveniently may be after my decease And I give to my dear wife Elizabeth three hundred Pounds for providing for herself and children and to Henry Christopher Wisse Esquire and my daughter Mary his wife one hundred Pounds for their providing and whereas on the arrimage of my said daughter the only child of me by my late wife Mary daughter of Thomas Scott Citizen and Walter of London deceased with the said Henry Christopher wise I did direct the Trustees named in the Settlement made on my Marriage with the said Mary to advance and pay to Sir Edward Blount Baronet and George Thorsall Esquire the Trustees named in my said Daughters Marriage Settlement the Sum of Two thousand Pounds the Interest whereof I was intitled to for my Life upon the Trust therein particularly mentioned And I did thereby Covenant that in case the said Henry Christopher Wise and Mary his then intended Wife or either of them or any Issue of the said intended Marriage should be living at the time of the death of the survivor of me and Elizabeth my present Wife that then my Executors or administrators should within six months after the death of the survivor of us and the said Elizabeth my said Wife pay the said Sir Edward Blount and George Thorsall their Executors or administrators the Sum of Three thousand Pounds upon such Trusts and to and for such uses Intents and Purposes as are therein expressed and declared Now I do hereby ratify and confirm the said Settlement and direct my Executors hereinafter named within six months after the decease of my said Wife Elizabeth to pay to the said Sir Edward Blount and George Thorsall their Executors or administrators the Sum of Three thousand Pounds in discharge of the said Covenant and I give unto the said George Thorsall and Henry Christopher Wise the Sum of four thousand Pounds to be by them or the survivor of them or their Executors or administrators of such survivor laid out in the Publick funds stock Government or other Securities as my said Trustees shall think fit In Trust to pay the same unto my Daughters by my present Wife that is to say unto my Daughter Catherine and Ann in equal Shares and Proportions at their respective Ages of twenty one or Days of Marriage which shall first happen provided they shall respectively marry with the Consent of the said George Thorsall and Henry Christopher Wise or the survivor of them And in the meantime to pay apply and dispose of the Interest and yearly Produce of the said four thousand Pounds for and toward the maintenance and Education of my said Daughters Catherine and Ann or for the Increase of their fortunes as they the said George Thorsall and Henry Christopher Wise or the survivor of them their Executors or administrators shall think fit And in case my said Daughters Catherine and Ann or either of them shall die under the Age of twenty one years and unmarried or shall marry without such Consent as aforesaid then the Share or Shares of her or them so dying or marrying without such Consent as aforesaid shall be paid applied and disposed of to such Person and in such manner as the Residue of my personal Estates hereinafter given and disposed of And in case I shall have another daughter by my said wife ^{whether born in my life time} or after my death I then give to the said George Eversall and Henry Christopher Wisse the further sum of two thousand pounds to be by them or the survivor of them or the Executors or administrators of such survivor laid out in the publick funds stock government or other securitys as they shall think fit ^{in trust to pay} the same to such daughter at her age of twenty and years or day of marriage which shall first happen provided she shall marry with such consent as aforesaid and in the mean time to pay apply and dispose of the interest and yearly produce of the said two thousand pounds for the maintenance and education of such daughter or for the increase of her fortune as they the said George Eversall and Henry Christopher Wisse or the survivor of them the Executors or administrators shall think fit and in case such daughter shall die before her dower shall become due and payable as aforesaid then my will and mind is that such dower shall be paid applied and disposed of to such persons and in such manner as the residue of my personal estate is to be after given and disposed of And I do hereby give to the said George Eversall and Henry Christopher Wisse the sum of two hundred and sixty pounds a year long annuities payable at the Bank of England Upon Trust that they the said George Eversall and do and shall receive the same as it shall become due and pay the same to my said wife Elizabeth or her assigns for and during the term of her natural life or otherwise permit her to receive the same and whereas by virtue of the settlement made on my marriage with the said Elizabeth my present wife my children by her will at her death be entitled to the sum of five thousand pounds equally to be divided among them I now in order that the portions or fortunes of all and every of my daughters may be equal and alike my will and mind is that from and immediately after the decease of my said wife my said Trustees shall sell and dispose of the two hundred and sixty pounds a year long annuities and pay and apply the money arising by sale thereof in manner following that is to say pay to my said daughters Catherine and Ann and my after born daughter so much of the said money as with the said two thousand pounds a year annuities respectively given to them and with their respective shares of the said five thousand pounds to which they will respectively be entitled by virtue of their said marriage settlement will make up the full sum of five thousand pounds apiece and may apply and dispose of the residue thereof to such person or persons and in such manner as the residue of my personal Estate is hereinafter given and disposed of And I do hereby give to the said George Cheswell and Henry Christopher wife the sum of one thousand pounds to be laid out in the Education of any other son which I may have by my said wife and in case my said son or either of them shall die before the expiring sum of one thousand pounds and one thousand pounds shall have been laid out in their Education then my desire is that so much thereof as shall not have been laid out for the purpose aforesaid shall be considered as part of the residue of my personal Estate and paid and applied accordingly And whereas on the Marriage of my said daughter Mary with the said Henry Christopher wife I did give her three hundred pounds to my wedding clothes and I do hereby will and direct my said Executors to pay out of the residue of my personal Estate to each of my other daughters at their respective ages of twenty one years or days of Marriage which shall first happen provided the Marriage be with such consent as aforesaid the like sum of three hundred pounds for the same purpose over and above what I have herebefore given to them respectively And I hereby give and bequeath unto the said George Cheswell and Henry Christopher wife all the rest and residue of my personal Estate in trust to lay out the same in the public funds, stock Government or
